BRIG'S SISTER GOOD FILLY

HAS EASY TIME WINNING CLIPSETTA STAKES AT LATONIA TRACK.

Climber Runs Unplaced and Is Thought to Hav Trained Off-Heat Wave Broken by Showers and Track Gets Muddy.

Cincinnati, O., June 10.—E. R. Bradley's crack filly. Brig's Sister, was this afternoon returned winner of the Clipsetta Stakes, one of the old fixtures run annually at Latonia and engaging the smartest of western juvenile fillies. Brig's Sister scored impressively and clearly demonstrated that she is the best of her sex in these parts. W. W. Darden's Margaret D. took second money and offered the only serious contention to Brig's Sister, I'an Maid was third and Climber fourth. The latter showed a dull'performance and was never formidable. It is likely that the Butler filly has trained off, for she ran far below her good Lexington performance when she won the only race in which Luke has suffered defeat to date.

The Clipsetta Stakes was instituted at Latonia in 1883, and has been run ever since without a break. Its tabled history since 1900 is as follows:

Because of her good showing in the Spring Trial Lakes at Douglas Park, when she finished second to Luke, after virtually getting left at the post, Brig's Sister enjoyed favoritism today. The public considered it only a question of her getting away from the post. She was on her good benavior at the start and was off forwardly. She allowed Margaret D. to show the way for the first almost put thereafter Neylon sent her into the lead and she won well in hand.

The Bradley establishment should have made a double during the afternoon, but for Neylon allowing himself to be trapped in a pocket that Taylor on Casuarina prepared for him during the stretch racing and which caused Black Toney's defeat by a nose. Black Toney was an intended good thing and with intelligent handling would have won.

defeat by a nose, Black Toney was an intended good thing and with intelligent handling would have won.

The track, as a result of the rain that began just before the fourth race, was somewhat soggy. After the finish of this race the rain came down hard and the sixth race was run in unddy going.

An outstanding incident of the afternoon came with the third race, won by Hortense, over Pebeto and Big Spirit. The last named made a game effort for the entire trip and on his return to the judge's stand, staggered, fell and died instantly. The cause of death, according to Dr. Leach, was an internal information of the control of the accounted for a generous patronage despite the heat that prevailed during the early part of the afternoon. The rain and cooling breezes that came later afforded a welcome relief. Speculation was in excess of that of yesterday, but somewhat below the standard set at the Louisville courses and short of last fall's showing at this track. It is expected that there will be a big improvement next week when the track gets smoothed from the effects of a recent top dressing. Right now the inside horses have an advantage on account of the hard strip next to the inner rail.

The success of four favorites and two second choices enabled the public to combine profit with pleasure. Lady Barbary contributed the first purse of the meeting to R. F. Carman's account when she opener. Uncle Hart was best in the second and Hortense, getting the lead on the first turn, held sway for the entire trip in the fourth and placed George J. Long's initial purse here to his credit. Flying Feet, backed with rare confidence in the closing dash, made a show of his opposition, Verena taking second place and Reno third. World's Wonder was excused from starting on account of an injury he sustained this morning while being galloped.

K. F. Carman intends to ship Meridian to New New Yeek here's week to run in one of the stakes at Belmont Park.

Bronzewing, one of the favorites for the Latonia Derby to be run next Saturday, was worked a batas, in hie and a hair this morning by F. Keogh, who will have the mount on her. She showed no signs of the soreness that she is supposed to have centracted at Louisville and will be in excellent condition for her Saturday engagement.

Al Dobson, who has been reporting the racing here for several western newspapers, left tonight for Denyer, Col., where he will officiate as associate judge at the Overland Park meeting.

Lady Barbary and Uncle Hart, the winning two-lorse combination, yielded $12.05, while Hortense, Casnarina and Flying Feet paid $322.05 for a $2 investment.

SAY FIGHT HAS JUST BEGUN.

Baton Rouge, La., June 10.—The executive committee of the New Orleans business men's organization that advocated the Reinhardt racing bill today gave out the following statement: "While we have received a temporary setback in our efforts to bring clean racing to the city of New Orleans, the fight has just begun. We beg to thank the public and our friends in the state of Louisiana and the city of New Orleans for their support."

A movement was started here today looking to the introduction of a bill similar to the Reinhardt measure in the senate, within the next few days, and trying it over again.

New York, June 10.—The Grand National Steeple-chase Handicap was the main feature of an interesting program which was productive of spirited racing at Relmont Park this afternoon. Refluf, an added starter, was returned the winner of the Grand National after Penobscot and Skibbereen had raced themselves out in the early stages of the journey. Skibbereen showed the way until the final quarter, where Penobscot, which had been closest in pursuit, obtained a short lead. After clearing the last obstacle Relluf, which steadily improved his position, moved up and easily disposed of the tiring Penobscot. The Westbury Handicap went to Isidora after a terrific stretch drive with the favorite. Crossbun. McCahey outrode the diminutive Sumter at the finish and scored by a short margin. The tabulated history of the Grand National Steeplechase is given below:

Thornhill, on the strength of his recent good races, was installed an odds-on choice in the second race and proved to be easily best. Hassock won the opener over Amazon and Headmast. Miss Fielder, coming from behind, took the fifth. Montrosa set a fast early pace, but tired when the winner challenged. Donald MacDonald, making his last appearance in the Holland colors, accounted for the final race of the day. He held his company safe at all stages and easily disposed of Guy Fisher in the final drive.

During the remainder of the meeting all three-quarter mile races will be run over the straight-away course,
Mrs. F. E. Brown repurchased Progressive from T. F. Sheedy, who took him out of a selling race Tuesday.

Sheriff Petit, of Nassau County, was an interested visitor today and expressed himself as being both well satisfied and pleased with the manner in which the sport is being conducted.

Interest is being taken in the sale of the horses of J. L. Holland, which takes place in the paddock tomorrow. All of them are racers in training.

ELWAH CONTINUES TO SCORE

Wins Stake at Dorval Park,

Montreal, Que., June 10.—A record-breaking crowd turned out at Dorval this afternoon. It was an ideal day for the sport and race-goers took advantage of it. A well-balanced card was provided, with the Mount Royal Selling Stakes, a dash of one mile and a sixteenth, as the feature. H. G. Bedwell furnished the winner of this race in Elwah, which made a runaway affair of it, leading from the start and scoring easily by five lengths. Taplin, who is riding in better form than any other Jockey here, took advantage of a good break with Elwah and, in the run to the first turn, secured a good position and took an easy lead. Tactics, the favorite, made has bid in the last quarter, but Taplin was alert and Elwah responded to the whip with an extra effort. Tactics tired badly in the last sixteenth. Stirring finishes came with the running of several of the races, the finishes in the fifth and sixth being especially close. It was not until the final strides that both Anavri and Amoret succeeded in getting a winning margin, Amoret was an outsider in his race, and for that matter only one favorite won during the afternoon, this being J. H. Houghton.

The track next to the inner rall appears to be deep and horses laving an inside position in rounding the far turn are at a decided advantage. This accounts for the quitting of many at this point.

The haltermen were busy this afternoon, two of the winners being bid up. J. W. Hedrick advanced Mockery from $400 to $700 and F. Harrington bid Anavri up the same amount. Both were retained. Today's visitors included Col. William Hendrie, Colin Campbell and William Northey of the Montreal Jockey Club.

Martin Foley was called to his home in Toledo this morning to attend the funeral of his brotherin-law, who died in El Paso last week. His horses will be looked after by R, E. Watkins during his apsence.

John W. Schorr's Luke McLuke will leave New York tomorrow and is due here Friday morning. He will be ridden in the Dorval Derby by the stable Jockey, J. Hanover.

the meeting, when a race for gentlemen riders will be given.

At the conclusion of the Ottawa meeting A. F. Dayton will leave for Denver to take up Starbottle and Celesta, which he purchased at Charleston, for George Wingfield of Reno. Jockey Charlie Peak will probably accompany him west, William Oliver will ship his stable to Aqueduct at the conclusion of the Dorval meeting.

KENTUCKY SHIPMENT REACHES DENVER.

Denver, Col., June 10.—The stables of J. Umensetter and Green B. Morris have arrived from Louisville, There were ten horses in this shipment and all stood the trip well. Those belonging to J. Umensetter are Lady Panchita, Cantem, Sea (Cliff, Whims and two others. Mr. Morris' colors have not been seen in Denver since 1888, when he raced quite a pretentious string here. In his lot are the Derby candidates Judge Gheens and Rose Ring. Ring.

Many visitors are arriving dally from outside points.

H. I. Wilson, president of the Butte Jockey Club, was here a day or two ago. He looked over the course and predicted that the Denver Fair and Racing Association would have the best meeting ever conducted here. He thinks that the Butte Jockey Club's meeting, which will follow Denver, will also be the greatest in its history, owing to the continued prosperity and the steady running of the mines night and day in Butte. Horses are plentiful in the west this year and some of them are fair class performers. Mr. Wilson went on to Butte to attend to some business in connection with the racing, but will return to see the Derby and remain until his meeting opens. July 4.

Byron McNutt arrived from Okahoma City. He states that there will be a big following from there for the running of the Merchants' Stakes. Many horses have already arrived and the big influx will set in as soon as the Dorval meeting comes to an end.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

M. G., Louisville, Ky. There was no field in the mutuels on the race won by Belloc, June 8, each horse having its own separate tickets.

W. B. H., Chicago. The fair presumption is that Southern Maid was at evens or better a place, but cannot inform you to a certainty, the club only furnishing place and show prices on the three placed horses.

J. J. B., Newport, Ky. The transaction stood as to Gipsy Love and Hawthorn only, becoming void as to Star Actress when the race in which she was entered was declared off. The substituted race cut no figure in the case, being a new engagement of which neither party had knowledge.

GOSSIP AND COMMENT FROM KENTUCKY.

GOSSIP AND COMMENT FROM KENTUCKY.

Cincinnati, O., June 10,—The indications now are that at east nine starters will go to the post next Saturday for the thirty-second renewal of the Latonia Derby. This will make the gross value of the race more than $8,000 and the net value to the winner fully $6,000. Those now booked as sure starters are as follows:

Horse. Owner. Weight.

Belloc ... James McManus 122 lbs.
John Gund A. Baker 122 lbs.
John Gund A. Baker 122 lbs.
Decathion ... G. M. Hendrie 122 lbs.
Ivan Gardner ... C. S. Wilson 122 lbs.
Ivan Gardner ... C. S. Wilson 122 lbs.
Hodge K. Spence ... 119 lbs.
Bronzewing A. P. Humpbrey, Jr. 117 lbs.
Brickley ... Wm. Gerst ... 115 lbs.
Other possibilities are R. J. Mackenzie's San Vega, A. Baker's Constant, G. J. Long's Ralph, J. N. Camden's Bringhurst, E. R. Bradley's Beach Comber and Crossthwaite & Rodgers Dr. Samuel. It is probable that, on the strength of his victories in the Clark Handleap at Churchill Downs, and in the Inaugural Handleap at Latonia last Monday.
Belloc will rule favorite for the race, although Bronzewing will also have a big following.

Manager John Hachmeister has every arrangement made to take care of the enormous crowd which is expected on Saturday to see this great mile and a half race. There will be an abundance of parking facilities for automobiles. A portion of the infield will be utilized for this purpose. The demand for boxes on Derby Day is unusually lively this season, and indicates that an immense crowd is sure to be on hand. There is wonderful interest in the Derby this season.

There are quite a number of horses now at Latonia which did not race at either of the Louisville meetings. These horses were spelled at Lexington, and were brought here from that track in the last few days. Waiter Grater has one string of eight, including Helen Raybould, a sister to Golden Egg, and another three-year-old, Sheperdess. The rest of the string are two-year-olds, with the exception of the maiden three-year-old, Barbla, by Orlando-Halss Kirty, by Si stable of horses on that circuit this summer, he having recently shipped nine to Butte. Among the number are Platiaum. Camia, Azure, Safufox, Mercurium, Caleium and Phosphoratum. The last named and Mercurium have been gelded since they last raced. Mr. Moody's contract with jockey Mott has about three years and a half yet to run, as it covers four years from February 11 last. The boy at times shows brilliant form, and in a year or two will doubtless overcome his slowness at the post. He is one of the best-mannered of the apprentice jockeys now in service.

The racing strings of S. Veiller, J. B. Clung and Joe Young, have been shipped from the Louis wille tracks to Butte, Mont, John Lowe sent The Cinder west in this shipment, which numbered eleven horses, Mr. Veiller goes from here to Montreal, and then to San Francisco before he starts for Butte. He will again have charge of the betting ring on the Montana tracks this season.

Frank B. Respess is now in Canada with Richwood and two other horses, which he is training and racing in his own interests, and J. B. Respess has his stock at Woodland Farm in the care of another man now. Mr. Respess still keeps his yearlings and other stock not in his training stable at Woodlawn, as he still has a lease on that place, though he now owns a farm on the Kentneky side, and later on the latter place will be his chief breeding farm. His stallions and broodmares he has been keeping at John D. Carr's farm near Lexington.

Mose Goldblatt is now making jockey J. Rooney's

A strong protest has been filed with each senator by the business men of the United States against authorizing the proposed interstate strade commission to exact from corporations information concerning trade processes, profits from particular articles, names of customets, and other commercial secrets.

Mediation, often strained to the breaking point, is now believed to be hopelessly wrecked through the misistance of the Mexican delegates that Huerta be allowed to name his successor and the equally firm refusal of the United States to agree to such a plan.

The civil marriage ceremony uniting Miss Belle Wyatt Willard and Kermit Roosevelt was performed in Madrid yesterday. In Spain, as in nearly all the other continental countries, the law requires a civil as well as a religious ceremony. The religious ceremony will take place today at noon in the chapel of the British embassy.

The New York Yacht Club officers' sloop Resolute won the fifth race of the series preliminary to the selection of the America's cup defender. Over a windward and leeward course, twenty-two miles in all, off Sandy Hook, she heat Alexander Cochran's Vanitie by about four minutes, without taking advantage of her time allowance. Defiance started, but dropped out because her rigging was not in proper condition.

The column of steam ascending from the top of Mount Lassen in California has diminshed in height, but still is higher than the column sent up during the disturbance of last week. Forest Supervisor Rushing made an investigation and says the action is geyser and not volcanie. No smoke is ascending, but the steam forces up a large quantity of light blue askes which discolor the base of the column, making it appear like smoke. The ashes have been scattered over portions of the country twenty miles distant.

Winner—Br. f. by Plaudit—Nun's Cloth (trained by J. O. Keene).

Weat to bost at 4:43. At post 5 minutes. Start bad and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. CASUARINA was away forwardly and, taking the lead at once, showed much the most speed, but had to stand a hard drive in the stretch and just lasted long enough to win. BLACK TONEY was kept yell up and, when he attempted to go through in the stretch, was sharply cut off and it cost him the race.

LUBS raced fairly well. KORFHAGE tired after going three-quarters. IVAN GARDNER and BENANET collided at the start and were practically left.

Overweights—Ivan Gardner, 3 pounds.

Winner—B, g, by Woolsthorpe—Winged Sandals (trained by W. H. Buckner).

Went to post at 5:18. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. FLYING FEET moved into a long lead in the first half and increased his advantage in the stretch to win in a canter. VERENA ran under restraint for the first half and moved up fast when called on, but was easily held safe by the winner. RENO suffered from interference and ran fairly well. BEULAH S. quit badly after going a half. STAR ACTRESS dropped out of forward contention in the first half. LADY ERRANT finished well.

T. LOUIS PATRONS

I am making a "flying" trip to St. Louis to see a horse work, and which is to be shipped to Latonia next Wednesday. I will be pleased to meet Wednesday. I will be pleased to meet PRESENT AND PROSFECTIVE SUB-SCRIBERS, at Specht's Hotel—next door to the Planters.

$5 Special Saturday.

My next $5 Special goes Saturday. In ten specials sent out on this service, I have had SEVEN winners, one loser, one second and one withdrawn. I look for a GOOD price Saturday. Meet me "face to face" in St. Louis—Thursday and Friday, or mail your subscription direct to Chicago office.
